

BARBARA HEALY & GROOVE TOO

McKenna Records is proud to present veteran vocalist Barbara Healy and her band, Groove Too. Barbara has a well-earned reputation as a soulful Blues singer and a talented, award-winning songwriter. She gracefully carries a history of sharing the stage with many of the great Blues singers and musicians of this era. Boasting equally impressive credentials, the rest of the band is on the A list of Pacific Northwest players. Barbara masterfully leads her 6 fellow band members through an energetic set of original Blues and R&B, along with some uniquely done standards. The band demonstrates the many colors of Blues and R&B with their recorded and live performances. From the solid rhythm section (Brian West: drums and Scoop McGuire: bass), colorful guitar licks (Gerry Rempel), and the swingin' piano playing (Gus Russell), along with the stellar "Treacherous Horns" (Tony Johnson, Dave Bender, and Tim McLaughlin), Barbara Healy & Groove Too give fans a good reason to continue their love affair with the Blues.

Well loved in the Northwest for many years, with 6 recordings under her belt, Barbara is ready to sparkle on the festival stage, clubs, and private events with her powerful live performance as she has done so many times over the years at such venues as Waterfront Blues Festival, Eugene Celebration, Corvallis Fall Festival, Moshovsky Center at Autzen Stadium, and Cuthbert Amphitheater.

On the stage and in the studio she delivers with strong original songs, clever lyrics, soulful vocals and a great band, Groove Too.

The band released their new album, "Been There Done That", in April which is now heard on radio stations everywhere and getting rave reviews.
